Innovation, quality produce and unrivaled service

Originally started in 1977 as a smaller farming operation, Dale Bone Farms grew into the largest cucumber shed on the east coast. In 2006, a group of experienced tobacco and sweet potato farmers recognized the need for a distribution facility. They purchased the operation and formed Nash Produce. The soil and climate in eastern North Carolina provide the perfect environment for growing the world's best sweet potatoes and pickling cucumbers.

Today we are proud to be a leading supplier in the industry with a focus on innovation, quality produce, and unrivaled service. We consider ourselves front-runners in a constantly evolving fresh produce industry. Staying ahead of the latest food trends, technological advances, and food safety initiatives ensures Nash Produce delivers quality service for our clients.

Our prime location (1 mile off of Interstate-95), year-round product, committed family of employees, and deep-rooted relationships with our grower base gives us the capability to dependably serve retail, food service, and processors in the industry.

NASHVILLE EXCHANGE Café and Catering

Lisa Hattaway has owned the Nashville Exchange since it first started as a book store in 1996 in a small building on Boddie Street. Hattaway added a coffee shop in 1998, after she bought the Washington Street building. In 2001, Hattaway added the cafe.

events Hattaway caters.

The Exchange is now booking holiday parties. "It's not too early to reserve your date," said Hattaway.

Household Items, Furniture
& Home Decor

Faith Christian Ministries has served Nashville and Nash County for almost 40 years. The organization has two locations in downtown Nashville featuring clothing for the entire family, accessories, household items, electronics, home decor, furniture and a specialty holiday shop inside the furniture location.

The newest addition is a seasonal formal wear department which is available upstairs except during Christmas which at that time is used for a toy ministry.

Current Director Laura Bartholomew came on board in 2021 and has worked diligently to take the ministry to a new level of shopping and giving.

Proceeds from goods sold at the two stores provide help to those in need in Nash County. So far in 2023 the stores have assisted 2,629 people in need of things such as food, clothing, utilities and even faith based counseling.

Shopping at Faith Christian not only offers you some incredible deals, you're paying it forward to help others.

FARM BUREAU INSURANCE Nashville

Farm Bureau of Nashville offers a team of Insurance Professionals fully equipped to help clients with all insurance needs.

What differentiates them from other companies? "We listen to our clients and build a plan to protect the things that matter most to you and your family with quality Farm Bureau products," said Agency Manager Tonja S. Philbeck.

Philbeck says the Nashville team works hard to personalize services to their customers needs.

The agency also supports local youth and events such as 4-H events, local festivals and school-related events.

Philbeck who is celebrating her 15th year with NC Farm Bureau, says it's all about community.

She is a graduate of Nash Community College and an alumni of Southern Nash High School so she knows the importance of shopping local and supporting the local community.

Tonja has earned the Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) professional designation from The American College, Bryn Mawr, PA.

She was named the NC Farm Bureau District VI Agent of the Year for 2012, and was named among the Top 75 Agents in 2013, 2018 and 2019.

Philbeck is a member of NAIFA and has served as a board member for the Nashville Chamber of Commerce.

She and her family are members and attend Red Bud Baptist Church. Tonja and her husband, Travis, have two sons, Parker and wife Anna, and Conner.

Super Flame Gas Company

Hugh Brinn, Angie Ayscue, Chris Thomas, Debbie Hardy, Jeff Wade, Ray Brinn, Jesse Brantley

“Your Hometown Propane Company For 71 Years”

Looking to diversify Stalling Oil Company's thriving business, Hugh Shearin and his wife, June Stallings Shearin, bought 19 100 lb. propane cylinders for cooking gas in 1952. With the support of Mr. A.R. Stallings, June's father and company founder, the new propane operation, Super Flame (named by A.R.'s wife, Mabel) was born. June handled the books. Hugh served as Vice President, delivery man and service technician. Dedicated employees met the demands of a growing community of loyal customers. Sons-in-law Ray Brinn (President) and Brad Bobbitt (Vice President) now lead the company which prospers as a provider of propane gas for a variety of residential customers. Ray's son, Hugh, also helps lead Super Flame as Manager.

As Superflame begins its 71st year, Ray is thankful. “We've been blessed with an opportunity to serve and the potential to do even more. We thank our customers and look forward to developing even more relationships in the future.”

An Everlasting Memory

An Everlasting Memory Monument Company is locally and family owned and operated by Michelle Viverette-Strickland.

Michelle established the company in 2006. The following year, she expanded to a larger location on Winstead Avenue. Michelle has been in the monument industry since 1988.

An Everlasting Memory has an inside and outside showroom that features all types of markers, monuments, and more.

“We have many choices from which to choose— granite available in different colors, marble or bronze markers, monuments, ledgers, benches, vases, mausoleums and urns,” adds Michelle.

Michelle states, “We are here to serve families in need of a lasting tribute for their loved ones. When you walk into our office, we want you to feel like you are with family in an environment that makes you feel like you are in your living room.”

Our company offers many different pay plans, one certain to meet every family's need.

Michelle Viverette-Strickland

“By taking out the middle man and going to our monument company, it not only saves the family money, but they are able to really personalize the memorial, by talking to professionals that have used all the tools to help with the personalization of the design instead of using standard designs.”

AEM feels blessed to be able to donate a number of markers and monuments each year to families who can not afford to purchase a memorial.

“The most rewarding part of owning AEM,” Michelle concludes, “is meeting people and establishing lasting relationships. My goal is to provide excellent service as well as give back to the community.”

AEM is also honored to be the 2018 thru 2023 Readers Choice Award Winner, as well as the 2017 Readers Choice Award Runner Up. And also 2022 and 2023 Best of Nash County Best Small Business Award.
